

The Title of the Thesis

by

Author's Name

A thesis submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of

Doctor of Philosophy

in

Mathematics

Department of Mathematical and Statistical Sciences

University of Alberta

© Author's Name, 2016

Abstract

Witty and concise abstract. References to [1] and [2].

Acknowledgements

Heartfelt acknowledgements.

Table of Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	Super-Cool Stuff	2
3	Conclusion	3
	Bibliography	4

List of Tables

1.1	Convocation date	1
-----	----------------------------	---

List of Figures

2.1	A Venn diagram	2
-----	--------------------------	---

Chapter 1

Introduction

Introduction!

Also, Table 1.1.

Spring 20xx	Fall 20xx
if submitting between Oct 1–April 15	if submitting between April 16–Sept 30

Table 1.1: Convocation date

Chapter 2

Super-Cool Stuff

It really is pretty cool. Consider the Venn diagram in Figure 2.1.

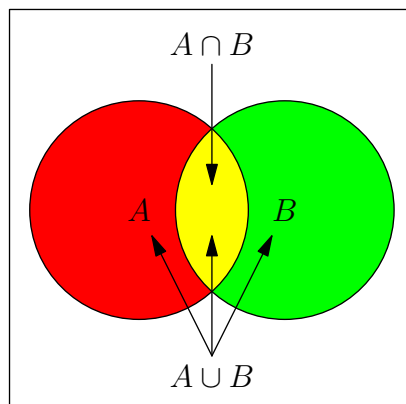

Figure 2.1: A Venn diagram

Chapter 3

Conclusion

We should really get a beer now.

Bibliography

- [1] A. Mathematicians and B. Statistician. A Brilliant Paper to Reference. Famous Math and Stats Journal, 2(3):222–333, 2038.
- [2] C. Physicist. Physics Book Useful for Mathematics. Famous Publisher, 3rd edition, 2038.